STEP 1: Navigate to your desired destination using the Table of Contents, Go to Page functionality, or the scrubber bar.

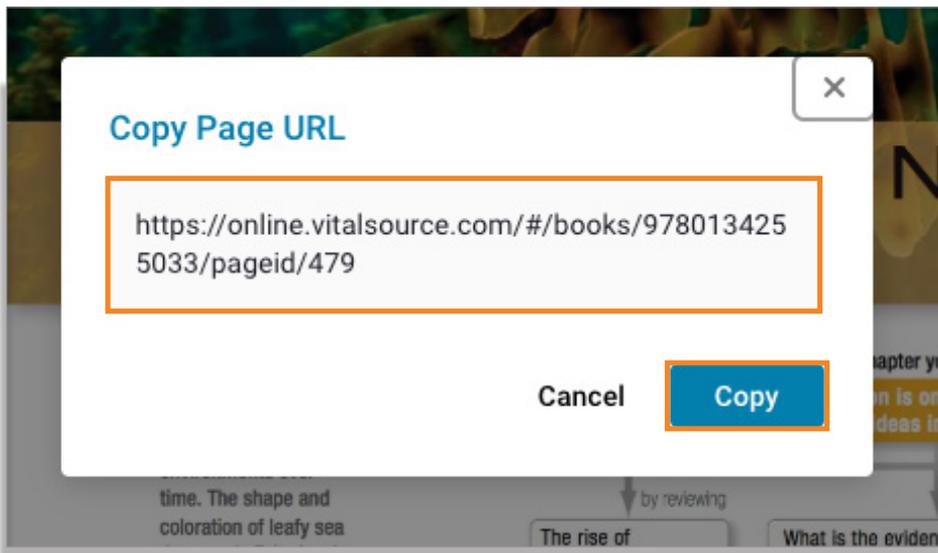

The screenshot displays the VitalSource Bookshelf interface for Unit 4: Evolutionary Patterns and Processes. On the left, a navigation sidebar includes a home icon, a search icon, and a table of contents icon. The table of contents lists: Chapter 22 Evolution by Natural Selection (435), Chapter 23 Evolutionary Processes (456), Chapter 24 Speciation (480), and Chapter 25 Phylogenies and the History of Life (496). An orange box highlights the search icon and the Chapter 22 entry. Below the sidebar is a 'Table of Contents' button. The main content area features a large image of a leafy sea dragon with the chapter title '22 Evolution by Natural Selection'. A vertical sidebar on the right indicates 'UNIT 4' and 'EVOLUTIONARY PATTERNS AND PROCESSES'. Below the image, a diagram titled 'In this chapter you will learn that Evolution is one of the most important ideas in modern biology' branches into sections: 'The rise of evolutionary thought 22.1' (by reviewing), 'What is the evidence for evolution?' (by asking), and 'Evolution in action: two case studies 22.4' (by applying). 'What is the evidence for evolution?' further branches into 'The pattern of evolution: species have changed and are related 22.2' (with regard to) and 'The process of evolution by natural selection 22.3'. 'Evolution in action' branches into 'Common myths about natural selection and adaptation 22.5' (keeping in mind). A 'Go to Page' button and a 'Scrubber bar' are located at the bottom of the page. A 'Copy URL' icon is visible in the bottom right corner of the page.

STEP 2: Click the Copy URL icon in the bottom right-hand corner.
