

Learning About Learning

Read, watch, or listen to something on these corporate learning topics, fill out your bingo card (or just email us the list) and get entered into a drawing! Fill out one bingo line of 5, and you're eligible for a drawing for an Amazon gift card. Complete a full blackout, and you might win an Apple watch! Articles, blog posts, podcasts, webinars, videos, whitepapers, books – any way in which you can learn more about corporate learning counts.

Learning Technology Ecosystem	Gamification	Recommended by a Peer	Neuroscience	Digital Disruption
Lessons for L&D From Another Discipline	Analytics/ Measurement	A Modality You Haven't Used Much	Case Study	Accessibility
Interview With a CLO	Graphic Design	Collaborative Online Learning	Microlearning	Recommended by One Of Your Learners
Design Thinking	Agile Methodology	Adaptive Learning	VR/AR	Content Development
Curation	Employee Engagement	The Skills Gap	Technical Training	Leadership Development

Once you've gotten your bingo or your blackout, take a picture of your filled-out card, or email us a list of what you watched/read/listened to, and we'll enter you in our drawings!

Fine print: Only U.S. residents are eligible to win the grand prize (Apple watch) or Amazon gift cards, unfortunately (sorry, importing rules and such). And no using something twice! Each bingo square should have its own piece of content. Due date: November 30, 2019.

If you need some ideas for a square's topic, check out blog.intrepidlearning.com/bingo-suggestions-2019 for ideas

WE HOPE YOU ENJOY THIS LEARNING ABOUT LEARNING CHALLENGE!
