

Prepare. Practice. Focus.

Prepare, practice, and focus takes on a whole new meaning with Bookshelf's newest feature, Bookshelf CoachMe™. Students have one place to learn it all with free practice questions and knowledge checks throughout their etext.

What is Bookshelf CoachMe?

Bookshelf CoachMe is a free, built-in study coach that provides embedded practice throughout the etext, offering "in the moment" learner engagement and low-stakes confirmation of the material. Students prepare, practice, and focus all in one place, so they show up to class confident and ready to learn.

Why Bookshelf CoachMe?

For Students

It's free! Download your etext in Bookshelf® to access your free study coach, with practice questions in the margins and knowledge checks at the end of the chapter.

Now, you have one place to learn it all. Identify what you know and focus on what you need to learn, all in one place. Feel confident and ready to participate in class by answering questions right in your etext.

For Instructors

Increase student confidence and participation with the power of learning science. Learn by doing is a learning science principle that proves practice has about six times the effect on learning than reading.

Provide students with more opportunities for prep, practice, and focus with Bookshelf CoachMe's AI-generated questions, aligned to the core etext.

For Administration and Technology

It's business as usual, with no technical or administrative lift. There is no training, setup, or new integration necessary – Bookshelf CoachMe is simply a new feature within Bookshelf.

Analytics and reporting are part of the value of Bookshelf CoachMe. Both formative and summative practice data is collected and available in custom reports, Caliper data feeds, or via the Instructor Dashboard.
